

By-Laws are the written rules of conduct for an association. They are our governing documents. By-Laws are so important they require a vote by the Community to make any amendments! So you, Member, are important to this Committee, to this Community. All Members in Good Standing are encouraged to join committees. If you are curious or interested in By-Laws and their impact on our community, or seeing possible changes in the By-Laws come and join the Committee.